Return of results for clinical trial participants

Build a knowledge translation strategy into your research plan!

Plan and manage expectations of what information participants will be provided from commencement of the study

Support and enable study staff with tools for communicating with participants

Ensure study outcomes are accessible and provide options whenever possible

When the study ends, say thank you

Scan for full guidance

