

ASCME STUDY

Researching the Impact of Stimulant Medication (Vyvanse) and Behavioural Intervention (Contingency Management) on Reducing Methamphetamine Use

Do you regularly use methamphetamine (meth, crystal meth, side, speed, jib, tina) and want to cut down or stop using?

Are you...

- Between 18-55 years old
- Able to attend St. Paul's Hospital Rapid Access Addiction Clinic once a week for study treatment and to answer questionnaires
- Able to take medication as directed by the study doctor

Study Information

- Study participant duration is up to 24 weeks
- Research Project led by Dr. Paxton Bach, MD (Principal Investigator) at the University of British Columbia
- Recruiting until June 2026

Monetary Compensation Offered

Participation Remains Confidential

No Cost for Participation

INTERESTED?

CALL or TEXT 236-668-7272

EMAIL

sahar.shahidi@bccsu.ubc.ca

DROP IN

St. Paul's Hospital Rapid Access Addiction Clinic